Children's Liturgy

Introduction:

Today is the day we celebrate the story of Jesus the Good Shepherd. A good shepherd spends his whole life for the sheep and looks after the sheep with love. He leads them to places where they will be safe and have food to eat. Jesus is a good shepherd too, because he looks after us and teaches us how to live happy lives and keeps us safe and gives us spiritual food.

Discussion:

What do you think Jesus is trying to teach us today?
Jesus also has followers today, men and women all over the world who follow Jesus' example. They spend their whole lives to try and help us be happy and safe and make sure we have the spiritual food of Jesus. These people are our priests, and deacons, our nuns and monks, our consecrated sisters and brothers.
We need to thank Jesus for all those people who follow his example and try to look after us as Jesus did. We need to pray for them too, so that they can do their work well.
People like Fr who is celebrating the mass today, and helps us know Jesus and come close to Jesus.
Do you know any other people who pray for us or help us know Jesus better that we can pray for?
