'Here I am, I come to do your Will.'

Vocational discerning is a process evolving over time. Accepting our mission involves the willingness to risk one's life and to travel the way of the Cross, in the footsteps of Jesus who firmly set out on his way to Jerusalem. (Lk 9.51), to offer his life for humanity.

Vocational discerning may be early in life. Later new circumstances, life changes or losses may be the times of grace and new beginnings.

'We are all called to a renewed personal encounter with Christ.'

We may experience and this personal encounter in many new, surprising ways.
